attend!

Join us on a gay and lesbian tour of the Chelsea galleries.
This is the fourth time we've taken the tour. The last tour had a great crowd and there has been a lot of demand for another!
Since the art in the galleries changes continually, this tour will be completely different from the last one.

New York City is the world's center for contemporary art, and home to some of the finest art galleries anywhere. New York Gallery Tours' director visits over 100 art gallery exhibits each month and selects the 10 most fascinating and provocative ones for you to visit, in Chelsea and beyond. You'll see the very newest in painting, sculpture, electronic media and photography.
At each stop on the walking tour, our guide explains the artwork and leads the group in lively discussion with a focus on art of interest to the LGBT community.

We strongly encourage you to let us know if you will attend.
Last fall we added a second tour guide due to the strong attendance. We will do this again if we hear from enough people.
Like all of our events, all are welcome, but we especially welcome LGBT alumni from the Ivy League and seven sisters schools, as well as our friends from Stanford, NYU, UVA, Duke, Williams, and Georgetown University. Feel free to bring your friends, boyfriends and girlfriends!

After the tour, join us for a reception at brite bar. Brite bar is a jewel among West Chelsea's galleries and warehouses. The corner location and huge windows give it a refreshingly airy atmosphere. The space has a comfortable feel yet the design is modern, with a touch of elegance. For more information, visit their website at <http://www.britebar.com/>

For more information, visit New York Gallery Tours at: <http://www.nygallerytours.com/gay.htm> Please note that the tour leaves promptly at 3:35pm.

SAGE carries out its mission through its social services, and its educational and recreational activities. SAGE's new web site will be available in May at <http://www.sageusa.org>
